

WEEKLY COMMUNICATIONS

FEBRUARY 4, 2022

1

CELEBRATING OUR COUNSELORS

- Next week (February 7-11) is National School Counselor Week! Help us recognize the outstanding work all our counselors provide at RCSD! Counselors have never been more critical than in the last 23 months in helping support our students, parents, and staff. As we have navigated multiple changes and learning environments, these front-line workers have been side-by-side with our students, tuning into their mental, social-emotional, and academic needs. Next time you see your student's counselor, make sure to give them a huge THANK YOU!

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

- February 18 marks the end of the second trimester for RCSD students. Parents, now is an excellent time to check in with your students and make sure they are on track to finish strong! RCSD teachers are always here to help should you have questions about your student's work and progress.

JOIN OUR TEAM!

- RCSD currently has multiple opportunities to be part of what we do each and every day! Many of our current job openings offer flexible hours that work within the school day. Check out the options on our website and join a great team of individuals who love being part of educating the next generation of leaders.
